

PARLIAMENTARY CONFERENCE TO GIVE FULL EFFECT TO THE PRINCIPLE OF COMPLEMENTARITY IN UGANDA AND THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

Thursday 17 July 2014, 8:30am-5pm in commemoration of International Justice Day,

Parliament Conference Hall, Parliament of Uganda

I. Objectives

1. To discuss with relevant stakeholders, actors, institutions and experts the steps that need to be taken to give full effect to the principle of complementarity in Uganda and the DRC, which regulates the relationship between the primary responsibility of States to put an end to impunity for crimes against humanity and war crimes and the complementary responsibility of the International Criminal Court (ICC);
2. To analyze the legislative tools and the practical policies and means that would be necessary to overcome existing obstacles for
 - a) the adoption of the Ugandan The Transitional Justice policy (TJP) drafted by the Justice, Law and Order sector (JLOs) of the Government of Uganda
 - b) the adoption of relevant measures to attribute jurisdiction to DRC Courts, including the Implementing Legislation of the Rome Statute and measures aimed at setting up Specialized Chambers and mobile courts
 - c) the establishment and operationalization of reparation-programs for the benefit of victims in DRC and Uganda
3. To provide opportunity for Peer to Peer dialogue and strategic debate among Ugandan and DRC MPs, so they can share best practices on comparative implementing legislation, functioning justice systems (including military jurisdictions) and other efforts to put an end to impunity
4. Dialogue between DRC and Uganda as neighboring states on common strategies on how to arrest and surrender to the ICC LRA leaders and other fugitives from international justice, as well as to strengthen cooperation to end the impunity of fugitives from domestic justice
5. Strategic debate on how to address the misperceptions that ending impunity might delay peace and stabilization processes, whereby empirical evidence and common sense dictate that only by ending the impunity of persons bearing the greatest responsibility for atrocities can durable peace and respect for human dignity be attained

II. Expected Outcomes

1. Highlighting of existing obstacles for the Implementation of the TJP in Uganda and concrete measures on how to address and overcome them
2. Highlighting of obstacles for the Implementing legislation of the Rome Statute in the DRC and plan of action on final steps to overcome them
3. Identification of concrete action-points for Parliamentarians to advance the domestic prosecution of international crimes in DRC and Uganda, as well as to provide reparations and redress for victims and survivors
