14:30 ONWARDS

On this year's World Day Against the Death Penalty, set for October 10, Justice Project Pakistan, in collaboration with Olomopolo Media and Highlight Arts, presents a ground-breaking 24-hour long performance that will be streamed LIVE around the world.

No Time to Sleep charts the final days of Prisoner Z, played by acclaimed actor Sarmad Khoosat. Set inside a replica of an actual death cell, you will get an intense, unedited look into Prisoner Z's journey to the gallows.

This performance is based on the true story of JPP's very first client, Zulfiqar Ali and accurately depicts life on Pakistan's death row.
